Design System Guidelines

1. Colors

- Primary Color: Use for call-to-action elements (e.g., buttons, links).
- Neutral Colors: Use for backgrounds, text, and dividers.
- Palette: Limit the color palette to ensure consistency and avoid visual clutter.

2. Typography

- Heading Fonts: Use for titles or emphasis.
- Body Fonts: Use for paragraphs and descriptions.
- Consistency: Keep font sizes and weights consistent across similar elements.
- Font Families: Avoid using more than 2-3 font families to maintain clarity and unity.

3. Spacing

- Spacing Scale: Use a consistent spacing scale (e.g., 4px, 8px, 16px) for margins and paddings.
- Component Spacing: Maintain consistent spacing between components to create visual harmony.
- Proportional Spacing: Larger elements should have proportional spacing.

4. Components

- Buttons: Create primary and secondary variations with hover/active states.
- Input Fields: Include labels, placeholders, and error messages.
- Cards: Design clean layouts combining text, images, and actions.

5. Accessibility

- Text Contrast: Ensure text has sufficient contrast with the background for readability.
- Scalable Fonts: Use scalable font sizes for accessibility.
- Interactive Elements: Test buttons and other interactive elements to ensure they are easy to use.

6. Consistency

- Uniform Design Rules: Apply consistent design rules across all screens and components.
- Alignment and Layout: Ensure consistent alignment, colors, and typography throughout the layout.

My Hobbies

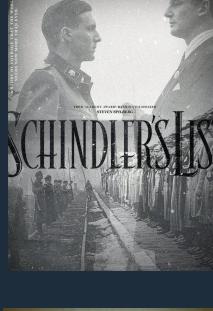

Spiritual Service

Spiritual service is an important part of my life. I'm involved in church activities like group prayers, Bible studies, and discussions, and I'm always learning through the courses I take at church. Serving others in my community has been a rewarding experience, and it's helped me strengthen my faith while building deeper connections with those around me.

Books

Reading has always been a way for me to escape into new worlds and expand my mind. Whether it's a gripping novel, an insightful history book, or a spiritual writing, I love how books can transport me and offer new perspectives. Some authors have really stuck with me, shaping how I see the world.

Movies

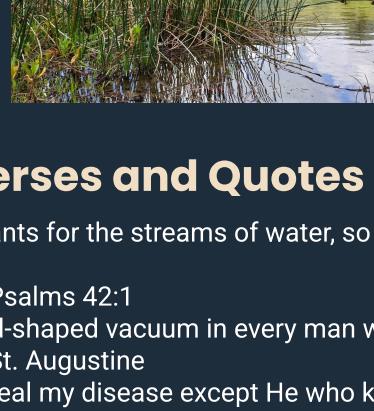

Watching movies is one of my favorite pastimes. I enjoy a mix of genres, but I especially love thrillers, mystery, thought-provoking themes, or moments of joy and laughter. Classic Hollywood films and early 2000s movies often captivate me the most.

Discussions

I enjoy meaningful discussions on societal, cultural, spiritual, political, and historical topics. Debating ideas challenges me to think critically and deepen my understanding of the world. Listening to podcasts sparks new ideas and broadens my knowledge. However, it's the conversations and debates that truly energize and help me grow.

Favorite Verses and Quotes

As the deer pants for the streams of water, so my soul pants for you, my God.

- Psalms 42:1

There is a God-shaped vacuum in every man which only Christ can fill.

- St. Augustine

No one can heal my disease except He who knows the depth of the heart.

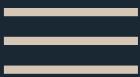

- St. Augustine

Love is never wasted, for its value doesn't rest upon reciprocity.

My family and I visited Wench Crater Lake, and it was an unforgettable experience. The stunning views of the lush landscape and the peaceful waters of the lake made it a perfect getaway. Exploring the area together made the trip even more special, creating lasting memories. It was a beautiful moment of connection, both with nature and each other.

Location

Suba was such a great hiking trip, a perfect way to get away from the noise of the city and just be surrounded by nature. Walking through the forest felt so refreshing, and it was the kind of peace I really needed. The hike up Damotcha Mountain was challenging, but reaching the summit amidst the clouds was an incredible feeling. Standing there, I felt so proud of myself, especially when I checked my phone and saw I had walked about 23.41 km and taken 37,757 steps. It was a rewarding and memorable adventure!

Pilgrimage

Seeking Silence in Pilgrimage

Reflection

Pilgrimages like my visit to Etisa Abune Teklehaymanot are unforgettable. In the dark cave, fear took over, but the tiny light at the exit brought hope and reminded me of God's mercy. These journeys are my escape, a connection to the saints, and a source of inner peace.

Historical Interests

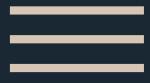

Exploring the Ethiopian Empire's rich history brings me closer to understanding the remarkable heritage of my ancestors. The stories of resilience and leadership inspire me every day.

Bucket List

- Running Women's Marathon
- Go on a Road Trip Across the Country
- Start a family tradition

Pilgrimage

Reflection

Pilgrimages like my visit to Etisa Abune Teklehaymanot are unforgettable. In the dark cave, fear took over, but the tiny light at the exit brought hope and reminded me of God's mercy. These journeys are my escape, a connection to the saints, & a source of inner peace.
